DEPAUL HAS CREATIVE STUDENTS:

Some of our favorite Red Ribbon Week advice comes from Michael Ball: "Say no to drugs, say yes to ice cream!"

We love Albenjamin's Wanted poster for pirate Pete Le Maire, the villain in Jack London's book Cruise of the Dazzler.

REPORT CARDS WENT OUT YESTERDAY

Check your child's agenda for their report card. You will find it sealed with a staple. There is no need to return the card; it is for you to keep. Remember to celebrate your progress and get in gear for the next quarter... the best is yet to come!

"I want to get a vending machine with fun-sized candy bars, and the glass in front is a magnifying glass. You'll be mad, but it will be too late." Mitch Hedberg

“OH NO! I FORGOT TO CALL IN HER LUNCH!”

It's a common problem for DePaul parents: you're at work and your morning gets busy. Before you know it, its 1:00 PM and you realize you never called in your child's lunch order.

To avoid the guilt (yours) and the tears (hers—though we provide a light snack for forgotten lunches), try these tricks to remember lunch:

1. Use Siri/your smartphone Reminder app.
2. Have a friend, brother, or co-worker who is an insufferable nag? Ask them to remind you to order lunch.
3. Set up a recurring lunch order with the restaurant.
4. Leave notes for yourself in a place where you'll find them around ordering time. Or, write it on your hand.
5. Take your morning work break at ordering time.
6. Combine a treat with ordering time. At midmorning, get a coffee and call in your child's order at the same time.
7. Use a reminder app like Evernote or Instapaper.
8. Ask your assistant to take care of it, or at least mention it.
9. Put it on the checklist or whiteboard you use every day.
10. Enter it in your Mac or PC calendar with an alarm.

THANKSGIVING FALL FESTIVAL

October is almost over, but the fall fun is just getting started!

At our annual Fall Festival, DePaul friends will share live music, hay rides, a petting zoo, and games.

This event is free to attend, however, food, drinks, and vendor items will be available at a minimal cost.

Parents, if you marked the Fall Festival as an area of interest on your DPA Enrollment Form, we will call you soon about helping us throw this fun little festival!
