OLIVIA WELLS HOSTS 2ND ANNUAL TEA PARTY FOR THE HOMELESS

DePaul Lion Olivia Wells' passion to help the homeless started as she was passing out lunches to hungry people at the age of seven. Two years later, she got the idea to have a tea party for children residing in transitional shelters.

On March 12, Olivia and her mom, Regina, hosted the 2nd Annual Tea Party at Jacksonville Community Connection. Thirty-four girls received beautiful new party dresses from Mrs. Martin's church, and gift bags. Olivia even brought friends from DePaul! The girls had tea and sandwiches with young ladies living in surrounding shelters. We're proud of these DePaul family members for showing love and friendship to children in difficult transitions.

SPEAKER VISITS FROM CASTAWAY ISLAND PRESERVE

Our students have maintained a butterfly garden at Castaway Island Preserve for three years. Cora Cooper with Timucuan Parks Foundation taught us all about butterfly friendly plants. We'd love it if you could donate some to the project! The list includes Butterfly Weed, Penta, Parsley, Porterweed, and Milkweed.
